

WENDY MOTEN

Wendy Moten was born to sing! This multi-talented American singer-songwriter, with her fluid and stylish vocals, has thrilled audiences on stages around the world from London to Paris, St. Petersburg to Tokyo, Rio de Janeiro to New York, and many more. Her voice tells a deeply soulful story that touches and inspires all who hear it.

Wendy started singing early in her life at her Father's church in Memphis, Tennessee, and from the first note, captured the hearts of everyone. Her early musical influences included Barbra Streisand, Stevie Wonder, Ella Fitzgerald, Aretha Franklin, and a host of others.

In the late 1990's, Wendy signed with EMI Records, where she recorded three solo albums and several singles and released the Billboard hit ballad, Come In Out Of The Rain, which was a top ten hit in Europe. Wendy's self titled debut EMI released also included up-tempo tracks, Step By Step and Nobody But You. Wendy toured as the opening act for Michael Bolton during his North American tour and was the toast of Japan where she performed at the famed Budokan, hosted David Foster & Friends and the Tokyo Philharmonic Orchestra.

Shortly thereafter, Wendy recorded the Grammy nominated single, Whatever You Imagine, for the animated film, The Pagemaster, starring Macaulay Culkin. She released her second EMI album, TIME FOR CHANGE. Popular tracks include, Forever Yours and Your Love Is All I Know. After receiving rave reviews in the U.S., the album went global and became one of Japan and Europe's best-selling albums.

Along with her solo albums, Wendy has recorded duets with top selling artists, including, Michael McDonald, No Love To Be Found; Julio Iglesias, Just Walk Away; John Oates, Let's Drive among others. She was the featured vocalist on the Buddy Guy projects, Microsoft's Paul Allen's current CD Everywhere At Once duet with Derrek Trucks, Healing Hands. Her recording of the Stevie Wonder hit, All I Do, is featured on the Grammy-award winning saxophonist Kirk Whalum's CD For You, produced by Grammy-winning producer Paul Brown. Wendy's voice has been deemed as one of the natural wonders of our age, an instrument of infinite diversity. Wendy is currently on tour with Julio Iglesias, Faith Hill & Tim McGraw, and Vince Gill.
