Cancellations, Refunds & NSF

A $25 fee will be charged for any post-dated cheques returned due to non-sufficient funds. If two cheques are returned due to non-sufficient funds; the vendor will be asked to pay their vendor fees in cash for the remainder of the season.

Post-dated cheques may not be voided (i.e. stop payment) by the vendor in the event of a cancelled reservation. Vendors will be charged $25 for a voided cheque.

A vendor’s cancellation of Market season due to health, business, or other extraordinary reasons will be refunded accordingly, at the discretion of Harbour Life Market. The remainder of the season will be cancelled, any un-deposited post-dated cheques will be returned.

All refunds, including voided, unused post-dated cheque, will be issued within 30 days of the vendor’s last Market date. Unforeseen events or emergencies will be taken into consideration when applying the cancellation policies. There is no carryover of refunds from year to year.
