

DYSLEXIA CHECKLIST

Testing To Get Completed

- 1. Full Educational Psychological Evaluation by a Neuropsychologist, Child Psychologist, or Developmental Pediatrician. (testing for Dyslexia, Specific Learning Disability, ADHD, or other learning disabilities).
- 2. Ears, Nose, Throat (ENT) Doctor and Audiologist (testing for Auditory Processing Disorders)
- 3. Speech-Language Pathologist (testing for Language Processing Disorders)
- 4. Occupational Therapist- (Testing for handwriting and other age appropriate skills)

Tasks To Get Completed At Public School

- 1. Write a letter to request an evaluation for special education services at public expense to your principal and head of special education services (If you already are diagnosed include the paperwork from the doctor.)
- 2. Sign Consent to start the evaluation (60 days under Federal Law) once you sign consent. If you don't get the consent forms within a week, send an email asking for them again. Document. Document. Document

Other Tasks To Do:

- 1. Find your state's Department of Education and locate their Parent Rights and Safeguards. This is your rights in your state. These are your child's rights in your state.
- 2. Join other support groups on Facebook (Partners in Promise, Wright's Law, Decoding Dyslexia (state and regional groups and pages)
- 3. Find your tribe. The road in special education is long. You will need a support person outside of your family (Parent, Spouse, Friend).