Easter is just around the corner and we're doing great on the basket drive. At this point, it appears that we'll have enough baskets for our 13th MEU kiddos and will most likely have extras to share with those kids in the Naval hospital on Easter day. Our families are so blessed by so many !!!! It's a double blessing when we can reach out to the little ones in the hospital on the holidays and make their day a little brighter. It's never easy to be in the hospital, especially on holidays !! The kindness of so many makes a huge difference and are appreciated !!!

Our single Marines, many who spend Easter away from their families, are always so grateful for the gift card donated by so many to make their Easter special too !!!

Starting in 1986, April became "Month of the Military Child." Secretary of Defense, Casper Weinberger created the idea due to the fact that no one honored or recognized the sacrifice that military children made when their parent or both parents are in the military. He believed that military children were very inspirational and resilient with how they handled stressful situations such as frequent moves and separated families through deployment periods. Now 33 years later, the Month of the Military Child has become a big deal within the military community. Each April, all branches of service provide special events to honor and celebrate military families and their children. One common theme throughout the Month of the Military Child is the color purple. Purple was chosen because it symbolizes all branches of the military, a combination of Army Green, Air Force Blue, Coast Guard Blue, Marine Red and Navy Blue.
