National Military Appreciation Month, as designated by Congress in 1999, provides a period encompassing both the history and recognition of our armed services with an in-depth look at the diversity and achievements of its individuals. The month allows Americans to educate each generation on the historical impact of our military through the participation of the community with those who serve encouraging patriotism and love for America.

This special and important month honors, remembers, recognizes and appreciates active duty members of the military in all branches of the services, the National Guard and Reserves, as well as retirees, veterans and their families. We also honor Americans who have given their lives in defense of the freedoms we all enjoy today. As Americans we must never forget the high cost of our freedoms nor those who defend them.

The first Military Spouse Appreciation Day was observed on May 23, 1984 and was established through a proclamation by President Ronald Reagan. The day was later made into an annual observance by Secretary of Defense Casper Weinberger.

Military Spouse Appreciation Day, which is also sometimes known as Military Spouse Day, aims to bring national attention to the role that military spouses play in maintaining the morale of the military and in supporting their significant others while they serve the country.

Happy Military Spouse Appreciation Day to all our amazing 13th MEU spouses !!!

Special Thanks to Our Sponsors!!

Mr. Jerry Zomorodian

Welcome to the world to this precious little one and congratulations to her very proud parents. One of the things the Committee does is provide our new parents with a baby basket full of things they'll need the first few weeks after coming home with their bundle of joy. This precious little one was born a few weeks after her Sailor daddy returned from deployment and she is their first child.

We received a lovely e-mail from Dad expressing how much this basket meant to him and his wife. "We greatly appreciate the gift basket! It was a huge help that makes the chaotic transition from post deployment to new parents a little easier. The Baby 411 book was a keystone to better understand and take care of our baby with confidence."

We collect items year-round and donations are always welcome. If you are interested in donating items for these very appreciated baby baskets, please see the information in the flyer below. Making a difference in the lives of these young Marines and Sailors is a blessing to them and will be to you too !!
