

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BLACK COMPLIANCE & RISK MANAGEMENT PROFESSIONALS, INC.
UNITE.LEAD.INSPIRE

WHO WE ARE

The National Association of Black Compliance & Risk Management Professionals, Inc. is a member-based non-profit association for African-American compliance and risk management professionals. Members of NABCRMP represent corporations, financial institutions, law firms, accountants, consulting firms, government agencies, trade associations, universities and non-profit organizations. Our professionals work across a variety of business industries and sectors, including banking and financial services, health and life sciences, employment, telecommunications, consumer products and agriculture, and cybersecurity.

Together, we represent every spectrum of compliance, corporate governance and risk management, ranging from risk officers, advisors, policy and procedure specialists, compliance analysts, compliance managers, chief compliance officers, board of directors, lawyers, accountants, consultants, corporate counsels and general counsels.

As a NABCRMP member, you'll have access to countless opportunities to network and collaborate with industry leaders and experts. Other benefits include:

 Job Opportunities and Professional Development

 Training

 Leadership Development

 Online Compliance/Trade Library

 Conference and Event Calendar

 Updates on regulatory changes.

 We welcome compliance professionals from all professional disciplines, sectors and regulated industries.