Applications and Thoughtstarters for Crisis Environments

Quick Response Program

People are our priority, and we're doing what we can to help the communities where we live and work. Healthcare professionals, specifically, need to respond quickly to changes and growing demands. To help, Steelcase Health is offering a selection of solutions with expedited lead times to accommodate urgent requests.

The products shown here and on the next page will ship within four to six business days from order date. All are:

- High-performing products
- Designed to be highly durable and withstand stringent cleaning protocols
- Eight product lines, 11 styles, a limited range of options and surface materials

Steelcase Health is committed to working with our customers to meet their changing healthcare needs. If healthcare products are required that are not included in the Rapid Response Program, please reach out to your local Steelcase Dealer or Sales Representative so that we can rapidly work to meet those specific needs.
