

Freestanding — Protective Screens

The Muraflex Protective Screens are freestanding and require no installation. Made of plexiglass, the screens are lightweight and easily moveable.

There are two standard models: a countertop and a floor model. The countertop model has a transactional slot at the bottom and the floor model comes with an optional transactional slot.

With expeditive leadtimes and no need for installation, you can quickly benefit from our protective screens to safely interact with others.

The Counter freestanding Protective Screen with transactional slot

The Floor freestanding Protective Screen with transactional slot