

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS

We are first year Temple University Master of Occupational Therapy students. Over the next several months, we will be on site at Little Leaders Institute, LLC working alongside their dedicated staff. This collaborative experiential learning opportunity will allow us to apply theoretical, developmental, and kinesiology perspectives that we are learning in our courses to environments we may encounter as future practitioners. This community collaborative experience introduces activity.

Thank you for the opportunity to work with your children!

Quintina Waymon-Mason

My name is Quintina and I was born and raised in Philadelphia. I am 26 years old and I love to complete art projects! I graduated from The Pennsylvania State University with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Rehabilitation and Human Services, along with a minor in Human Development of Family Studies. I have a passion for helping children. I am a passionate, goal-oriented, and positive person. I look forward to applying lessons from my Temple MOT program to the Little Leaders Institute. I am excited to take my lessons learned from this experience out into the field of occupational therapy as a future practitioner.

Morgan Zurlo

My name is Morgan and I was born and raised in Upstate New York. I am 26 years old, and a twin. I graduated from The College of the Holy Cross in 2016 with my Bachelors of Arts degree in Sociology with a concentration in Peace and Conflict Studies. I love arts and crafts, sports and you can always catch a smile on my face. I am so excited to share what I have learned as an occupational therapy student thus far at Temple University with the members of the Little Leaders Institute.

Myrna Yousuf

My name is Myrna Yousuf. I was born and raised in West Philadelphia. I am 22 years old and I am a first generation Bengali-American. I can speak Bengali and Hindi. I love reading and cooking new foods. I graduated from Temple University in 2020 with a Bachelor of Science in Public Health. I have a passion for working with young children and helping them participate fully in the environment that they are in.
