

Self employed, but never alone

Why QuickBooks Self-Employed?

QuickBooks Self-Employed is specifically designed for sole proprietors who file a Schedule C form at tax time. With great features like mileage tracking and receipt capture, QBSE lets you stay organized better, get paid faster, and avoid tax-time surprises.

Track expenses in real time

Mileage tracking & receipt capture

Fast and professional invoicing

QuickBooks Self-Employed

- Monitor expenses in real time
- Capture & organize receipts
- Track miles and categorize trips
- Send professional invoices from anywhere

The Accountant Advantage

No matter what your business goals may be, partnering with an accountant can help you manage your Quickbooks balance sheets with confidence. Whether you're starting out, expanding, realigning, or just struggling with your books, count on personalized guidance for your unique financial picture.

- Expert insights to help you make informed financial decisions
- Accurate bookkeeping to give you financial peace of mind
- Organized statements to keep you prepared for tax season
- Improved efficiency to let you to focus on what you do best

By the numbers

$4,628
on average tax savings per year¹

37%
more deductions on average by logging miles²

up to 42%
deduction in tax bill by using QuickBooks Self-Employed³

Contact me today and learn what I can do to help your business succeed!

Contact information provided by your local independent accounting professional.

1. Based on TY17 US subscribers that have identified >$10,000 in income and >$0 in business expenses

2. Based on TY17 US mobile subscribers that have identified >$0 in income and >$0 in business expenses

3. Based on TY17 US mobile subscribers that have identified >$0 in income and >$0 in business expenses

Information on QuickBooks created by Intuit for use by independent accounting professionals with their clients.